BASICS		FIND
:wq	write and quit	/bird	finds a bird!
:q!	quit without writing	p / n	takes you to the previous / next bird
i	enter Insert mode from Command mode	f*	to the next '' in the line (not above or below) esc	exit Insert mode & return to Command mode	F	previous '*'
v	from command mode to visual mode	;	scroll through your f command
u	undo!	REPLACE
ctl + r	redo	:%s/bird/cat/gc	replace all the birds with cats, but ask first
DIRECTIONS		:2,5s/bird/cat/g	between lines 2 & 5, replace all birds with cats, no asking
h	to move the cursor one space left	:%s_bird_cat_g	replace all the birds with cats (changing the / to something else helps w/ pathnames)
j	to go down one line	SCROLL
k	to go up one line	control + b / f	takes you back / forward a page
l	to go one space right	control + d / u	takes you down / up half a page
I LIKE TO MOVE IT MOVE IT		GETTING IN GOOD
gg / G	takes you to the beginning / end of the file	I / A	insert beginning / end of current line
0 / $	takes you to the beginning / end of the line	P	pastes before your cursor (yy includes a /n)
w / b	takes you to the next / previous word	o / O	adds a new line below / above the current line and goes into insert mode
DELETE!		MOVES LIKE JAGGER
dw	to delete a word	) / (	forward / backward 1 sentence d$	to delete from where you are to the end of the line	} / {	forward/backward one paragraph
VISUAL EFFECTS		''	move to the last line you jumped from (2 apostrophes)
y	ends and yanks your selection	DUAL WEILDING
p	pastes your selection	:e /OMG/WTF	while already in vim, open up /OMG/WTF for editing
yy	yanks the line you are on	:bp / :bn	move to previous / next opened file to edit yap	yanks around paragraph	:bp / :bn	move to previous / next opened file to edit